Educators Panel Event – April 13 (Immediately following April Chapter meeting)

Join us after chapter today for dialogue, learning, and connection from 12:30PM-2:30PM. This will be an opportunity to engage with educators and community partners while listening to the voices and the experiences of current schoolteachers from across Indianapolis. RSVP here! Educators from Butler University and the Indiana Teach Plus Cohort will join us after the meeting for a candid discussion about how the community can better support our educators.

Denim Day – April 25

In 1998, the Italian court system overturned a rape conviction because the female victim was wearing tight jeans. On Wednesday, April 24, 2019, a national sorority campaign will encourage chapters to bring attention to sexual violence against women around the world. Please wear your jeans to support this important cause. Post and share your pictures on social media using the hashtags #SigmaGammaRho #SGRho #DenimDay.

I would like to encourage Alpha Sigma sorors to attend the BlackOut Masquerade hosted by the Iota Xi Sigma Chapter on Saturday, April 27 from 7:22 PM – 12 AM at the Doubletree by Hilton Hotel South Bend. This will be a great way to show sisterly love to our fellow Indiana Poodles. Attire is listed as all-black, semi-formal.

2019 Alpha Sigma Scholarship Applications Open – Deadline May 1

This year, Alpha Sigma will give two (2) $1,000 non-renewable scholarships. One will be awarded to a high school senior and one to a current undergraduate college student. To access the application on-line, please click here.

International Water Safety Day – May 15

In conjunction with the Indy Aquatic Alliance and the Indiana chapter of USA Swimming, Alpha Sigma will participate in International Water Safety Day. This would involve us gathering volunteers to go into schools and community centers to talk about the importance of water safety. Water Safety Day is recognized internationally on May 15. IV. Important new from the Anti-Basileus

- Sorors I hope that you enjoyed the first Volume of the Membership Connect...just know Volume 2 is on the way! However, it has come to my attention that non-financial Sorors have acquired this information from financial Sorors. Please note as stated on the first page of the Membership Connect, "This Newsletter is not to be shared beyond its intended recipients (Alpha Sigma) without the expressed written permission of the Membership Chair to maintain the integrity of the current T.O.R.C.H. program." The Membership Connect a is labor of love and a courtesy intended to provide an update to our financial body so that you are part of the process. It is not to be shared with non-financial members and in no means should be used for any other purposes. If we are unable to treat this information with integrity; moving forward this officer and the committee will only share updates via chapter meetings. Please do not ruin this beautiful update for the entire body.

❖ 2019-2018 International & Individual Assessments due July 1.

SPRING CHAPTER FUNDRAISER- MOTOR SPEEDWAY

Our Chapters' Spring Fundraiser will be focused on donating through individual "Time and Service." This time equates to 1 day of commitment at the Speedway racetrack. Your day of service will equal a donation of $90 to the chapter. Your service will help fund scholarships, Rhoer Sponsorship, Classic Float funding and continuous programming.

Once you have committed to a day of service and arrived, you will become a "RaceWay Poodle." As a raceway poodle, you will be given a commemorative gift as well as entrance into a raffle for a chance to win monetary, activates or paraphernalia prizes. Any non-Soror you refer for service will provide you with an additional raffle submission. You will also be recognized through social media. Only your time for 1 day is requested. Youth 16 years or older can participate with a parental waiver!

There is no need to purchase a dress, sell a ticket or get that hair laid! Service is all that is needed to help your local chapter with fundraising. If time in not on your side and you want to be able to provide a donation to this cause in place of a day or service, it will be welcomed with open arms at <https://www.paypal.me/AlphaSigmaChapter>. Your monetary donation will also be recognized and you will become an "Honorary RaceWay Poodle."

There are numerous dates available for your choosing. May 26th, although an early shift, is the one of most need. Please sign up <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/5080D4DABAC29A0F49-speedway> to view date options.

Alpha Sigma Chapter, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc.

Submitted by: Soror Samika Johnson

Happy April Sorors!

Scholarship Application Open

On behalf of the scholarship committee, please continue to promote the Alpha Sigma scholarship. There will be $1000 given to a graduating high school senior attending an accredited college or university, $1000 given to a current college student and $500 book scholarship given to an additional student. We currently do not have any applicants that have submitted their application packages, but I will continue to keep the committee and chapter updated on all applicant information received. We hope to obtain submissions soon. The deadline is Wednesday, May 1st and the committee will notify the selected winners by Friday, May 10th.

22 Club Membership Concluded on March 31st

The 22 Club membership submissions are now closed for the 2018-19 sorority year. Thank you to all the Sorors that supported this scholarship fundraising initiative. We were able to raise $380; this is significantly lower than the $1500 raised last sorority year. Next year we will promote the 22 Club bigger and better to increase participation. Thanks again to everyone who contributed this year.

The 22 Club Membership will reopen again at the beginning of the 2019-20 sorority year!

If you have any further questions or concerns for the Scholarship Chair, please email alphasigascholarship@hotmail.com.

Thank you Sorors and have a blessed weekend!

Greetings Sorors,

The following are initiatives that the committee has been actively working on since our last update:

- Continued development of Mental Health Mondays and Wellness Wednesday's social media posts. Goal is to continue to provide useful inspiration, tips, and information to promote healthy living and well-being for our Sorors and our communities. * I've noticed that other organizations have also started posting Health & Wellness information on their social media posts such as Circle City Links, 100 Black Women- Indy, and SGRHO Upsilon Sigma Chapter. Great to see that Alpha Sigma has been on the forefront on addressing health & wellness issues amongst minorities in the local community.
- Getting Fit with Sigma Facebook Page: This is a private Facebook group designed to share recipes, workouts, fitness information and more to motivate us Sigma women to get healthy and fit! Feel free to post pictures, ask questions, and post helpful tips that you've found. *Look forward to continued content posted, fitness challenges and more in the coming months!
- Ladies Night Out: "Rhock" Climbing was held on 3/28/19 at Climb Indy. This was a fun, and challenging way to burn some extra calories and try something different. We are excited to have more events for Sorors to participate in to support our physical health efforts in the future.
- Our next event is a virtual workshop, Overwhelmed and Over It: How to Relinquish, Relax, & Restore. This will be a Sorors Only interactive webinar presented via Zoom. It will take place on Thursday April 25th, 2019 from 7:30- 8:30pm. The workshop will be led by Soror Karen Moore who is a Psychotherapist and the owner of Elevated Minds, LLC. You will need to RSVP to receive a link to participate. Sign up will be listed on the Alpha Sigma website. Be on the look-out for a flyer with more information on participation.

Things to Be on the Look-out for:

- Continued Monthly and Weekly social media tips
- Indiana Black Expo Health Fair participation and fitness simulation

Thank you,

Soror Alicia Seawood

Workshops

7:00pm-8:00pm H.U.G.S. Initiative worksop Part 2

- UCC Miranda Moore continues and suggests that Undergrads should think about making a saving plan for big events coming up such as Boule or Regionals. lastly bridging the gap of generational communication, to mend the age gap in grad chapters to welcome more newly graduated sorors. A take away from generational communication it is not always what you say but how you say it.

7:00-8:00pm Unlock and Unleash Membership

- Unfortunately Intl. First Grand Basileus Liberty was unable to attend to 79th Central Regional conference however in her place was Soror Hamilton and Soror M. Harris who stepped right in to cover different membership types, Level 1 & 2 T.O.R.C.H. training, Inactive Sorors and centennial and the use of infinity groups. They first chatted about the importance of military Sorors and continuing to expand our international presence starting in Dubai; all Sorors are welcomed to attend the chartering of the the chapter. Secondly they wanted our opinion on how TORCH has been facilitated and the possible change of the name of Level 1 and Level 2. Sorors feel as if you have to be Level 2 trained since it precedes Level 1. The changing of the name may give more clarity to Sorors that Level 2 training is optional vs. mandatory. They then covered the importance of inactive members and their assistance as we get closer to centennial. The need to ensure chapters get inactive Sorors excited about reactivation and the discounts. Finally we discussed looking into infinity groups within chapters i.e. age, profession, interests, etc. This is a great way to keep members engaged and involved.

79th Central Region Conference | Royal Caribbean Cruise | March 14-18, 2019

Living My Best Life, How to create the life you want,

Presenter: Soror L. Chanel Dickerson- Central Region Epistoleus

- Soror Dickerson opened her workshop with a few statements prior to introducing 8 steps
 - you have to be clear, open on outcome as we are always manifesting consciously and unconsciously
 - take inspired action with subconscious thoughts
 - sometimes the path may not be ideal but the outcome or simply getting there “to the end result” is worth it
 - focus on the “How” and not the “Why”

8 Steps

- 1) Get clear on what you want (Be specific, primary cause is forgetfulness)
- 2) Ask for what you want (prayer, meditation, vision board, etc)
- 3) Take inspired action (visualize what you do want, your WHY will get you inspired to do it)
- 4) Trust the process (affirmations help speak life into you)
- 5) Receive and acknowledge what you get (be happy on somethings that don't come)
- 6) Keep your vibrations high (keep energy above, give because you want to, not out of obligation)
- 7) Clear your resistance (the more you speak of not wanting, the more you get of what you don't want)
- 8) Detach and act as is...(there's a special energy inside all of you, when your confident about something you already know it will happen)

We then participated in guided meditation and given homework which included:

- Encouraging us to partake in guided meditation before going to bed
- Start creating what you want
- Release negative experiences if you don't want it, “send it back”, if you don't like it, “bless it and send it back”
- When you're in alignment with stuff certain things won't bother you anymore
- Be careful how you “sow you time”
- When you do things with good intent “a good heart” the universe will find good to come back to you,
- Desire the things you want
- Make a decision of life you really want and turn within.
- You can manifest whatever you want

Sustain your Sigma Lifestyle- Soror Lateefah Stanford, PhD, presenter

Soror Stanford opened up this workshop by introducing the “5 S's” to managing your time commitments as well as knowing and understand how much of yourself to give to any given task. Those were: Sort, Set in Order, Sustain, Standardize and Shine. She introduced the concept of learning to say “NO” and allowing that “NO” to be a complete sentence. She stressed the significance of not over extending yourself as it pertains to your Sigma life as well as your personal life. It is okay to limit your involvement in activities and projects if you know that committing with conflict with your overall well being. She stated that “saying yes to something means saying no to something else”. It is up to us to determine what we commit ourselves to and should never apologize for not honoring every request from you in Sigma. She provided an illustration of a full plate of food. On this plate were several items that could be considered our favorite items. But the plate was so full that once one item was added, one would fall off. This showed us that there are many things to enjoy, but not always enough room to fit. It is okay to pick and chose those things with bring us joy. She encouraged us to be honest with ourselves about what type of margin we are working with. She ended by providing different resources for us to look in to in case we were interested in implementing some changes in how we maintain our Sigma Lifestyle.

Soror Chaya Grady- Presenter

Sunday March 17, 2019 7:00pm - 8:00pm

Soror Grady created a comfortable and open space for Sorors to be able to share their thoughts and feelings. Sorors in attendance all agreed that any personal information shared would be left there in the room and "left at sea."

Soror Grady talked a little about her personal story and how she used her faith to overcome her issues. She spoke about how various unresolved issues can hinder growth throughout various aspects of your life. Sorors opened up about situations that they could relate to in their personal and Sigma lives. Soror Grady shared how an older Soror's "two finger tap" helped her to start dressing like she should not only in Sigma, but also in the workplace. We then talked about how we can be better Sorors and sisters to one another by being mindful of other feelings but at the same time letting go of the "baggage" of things we can not afford to continue to carry.

We had one Soror who was honored from Alpha Sigma, Soror Patricia Ladd who crossed over to Omega Rho April 24, 2018. The Central Region choir under the direction of Soror La'Shaunda Ewing, led the choir in a touching song, "I shall wear a crown".
