ALPHA SIGMA CHAPTER "Defining our legacy through servant leadership"

Soror Dawn Wright, Basileus alphasigmabasileus1922@gmail.com

July 13, 2019

Sorors,

As we embark upon a new sorority year, I feel humbled, renewed and inspired to make this upcoming year a remarkable one. As I have taken time for self-reflection and replayed conversations with many of you and it is clear that there is a lot of unresolved hurt and pain that has come from working within our sisterhood. Many sorors have shared discouraging experiences and it is important that we acknowledge their truths. As sisters, we should seek to better understand how we can help our sorors have better experiences in our sisterhood, pave a path to forgiveness, and open our hearts for healing.

In order for Alpha Sigma to prosper, we need every soror to reflect on how they want to positively contribute to the sisterhood and serve the community moving forward. We must take time to tackle our issues with each other in a sisterly way, so we can stand firm on common ground to make progress in the mission of Sigma Gamma Rho. Just as I have, I would encourage each Soror to look within and take personal responsibility for how we treat each other and work together in this new sorority year and beyond

Reflecting on last year's journey, it is evident that we can come together as sisters to sustain our past successes while trying to define our legacies through our servant leadership. We know we have a challenging journey ahead as we work towards our centennial celebration. It is imperative for our growth and confidence as a chapter to reflect on the successes we accomplished together. This is not an exhaustive list, but just a small portion of what we made happen within the last year:

- 1st place at 2018 Circle City Classic Parade (under the leadership of Soror Jennifer Clayton and Soror Karin Sarratt)
- Induction of 12 members into the Alpha Sigma Rhoer Club (under the leadership of Soror Yolanda Mattox)
- Induction of 18 graduate & 20 undergrad sorors (under the leadership of Soror Shira Amos and Soror Ti'auna Williams)
- Establishing a Health & Wellness committee (under the leadership of Soror Alicia Seawood)
- Inaugural St. Jude's Information Table & Volunteer Support (under the leadership of Soror Michaela Ezell)
- Supported two Swim 1922 events at the Indianapolis Boys and Girls Club & Indiana University
- Operation Big Book Bag school supply donations to IPS 87 George Washington Carver School
- Over 50 Alpha Sigma Sorors attended the 2019 Central Region conference via Royal Caribbean
- Induction of 2 new Ruby members Soror Tanika Scott and Soror Valerie Ligon
- Successful rebranding of the Indiana Motor Speedway Chapter Fundraiser (under the leadership of Soror Jennifer Clayton, Soror Carla Clark, and the fundraising committee)

Our chapter is growing exponentially, which gives us more opportunities to mentor new members, support newly reactivated and transferred sisters and collaborate with sorors who are ready and willing to share their talents and fresh ideas to serve Sigma. If you have any questions for me, please email me directly at alphasigmabasileus1922@gmail.com.

Yours in Sigma,

Dawn Wright

Greetings Sorors and Happy 2019-2020 Sorority Year!

We are super excited to see what this year brings. Alpha Chapter is still on break. Not a whole lot going on right that this moment. Soror Strong did hold her first "22Reasons Basketball Camp" in her home town. It was successful thanks to many sorors who donated to her cause. She is very grateful to everyone who donated or provided a kind word of encouragement. She is looking forward to going it again next year.

All EOY paperwork has been completed and submitted.

Soror Strong had a "meeting" with a transfer player who is very interested in becoming a member. This is exciting as we are gearing up for strong recruitment efforts in the month of August to prepare for a Fall T.O.R.C.H (fingers crossed).

Calendar planning will take place in August during the chapter meeting. Once the calendar is completed I will be sure to send out updates.

Again, we are still in summer mode. We look forward to your support this year! Let's make it a great year!

Sisterly,

Soror TaMeca N. Joshua

July 13, 2019

Welcome to the new Sorority Year! It is once again my honor to serve as your Anti-Grammateus. I'm on business travel and unable to attend our 1st meeting of the year, but Soror Kathy Jones will provide my report to the Chapter.

I. ATTENDANCE:

- Please remember to sign in before leaving Chapter. If the e-mail captured on the Roster is not your preferred e-mail, please send me an e-mail outlining the changes you want me to make for the sign-in sheet, and the Google Groups (i.e. All Sorors and Financial Sorors). Also, note if your name is not captured correctly.

II. SORORITY NAME BADGES AND CREATING A WELCOMING ENVIRONMENT:

- All of the badges ordered have been received and can be picked up today. All Sorors are being asked to wear their name badges to Chapter meetings. As our Chapter continues to grow, having names visible during meetings will facilitate Sorors saying hello, making introductions, and connecting with other Sorors you may not know as well.
- To promote more sisterly interactions at Chapter meetings, consider one of the following actions:
 - Arrive a few minutes early for the Chapter meeting and make a point to greet Sorors and be “approachable” for others to reciprocate and greet you with Sisterly love too!
 - Make a point to introduce yourself to a Soror that you may not know or know well. Questions to ask and/or things to share include: chapter induction, year inducted, line name, your “why” for joining Sigma Gamma Rho, etc.
 - Sit in a different “spot” in meetings to mix it up a bit. You may be able to assist other Sorors by answering a question or simply helping them feel welcomed and comfortable in the meeting.
 - Consider going to brunch after a Chapter meeting and expand your circle by inviting other Sorors to attend.

III. ALPHA SIGMA COMMUNICATIONS

- The deadline to submit content for the newsletter will be midnight every Tuesday. Weekly publications will occur every Thursday before midnight. There will continue to be two publications, one for Financial Sorors only and All Sorors, when content warrants a distinction (i.e. TORCH content, Bylaws, etc.).

Respectfully submitted,

Soror Karin Sarratt

MISSION

To accurately maintain, preserve, and make available essential records, and to provide prompt, efficient, and courteous customer service in order to fulfill all duties as Anti-Grammateus for Alpha Sigma Chapter.

Kathy’s Knowledge Base

Parliamentary inquiry: is an incidental motion which requests an opinion on parliamentary procedure or the organization’s rules to the business at hand and not involving a ruling.

1. Does not require a second
2. Is directed to the chairperson not the parliamentarian
3. Can be stated without recognition from the chair

Example:

Member: A parliamentary inquiry, please

Chair: The member will state the inquiry

Member: Is it in order at this time to move to refer to a committee? Or What is the pending question?

Next month’s Knowledge Base: Secondary Amendment

Respectfully submitted,

Kathy Jones

 - Your individual workout efforts will count toward the total team points
 - Don't like a lot of rules?? Don't worry, there are only a few to do's...as long as you are active, drink water, and communicate you'll be fine!
 - It's not a sprint...it's a 6-week challenge
 - You like prizes and rewards?? Oh, well you will love the weekly bragging rights and "sur-prizes"! Plus, there is a super nice grand prize for the winning team members. See the prototypes below (official prize designs are forthcoming!).
